
EDINBORO UNIVERSITY IN MEADVILLE

HISTORY

1980-2000

Edinboro University offered courses in Meadville at various leased or borrowed locations, such as Wesbury Retirement Community and Bainbridge Center.

December 1, 2000

- ❖ The City of Meadville declared “Edinboro University Day”
- ❖ Edinboro University opened the “Meadville Access Center” in the downtown mall.
- ❖ President Pogue – “It is our hope that we will be able to secure the necessary commitments from people in this area to enable Edinboro University to locate a state-of-the-art technology center here in Crawford County. Wouldn’t that be wonderful?”

November 14, 2002

Edinboro University kicked off its capital campaign in Meadville. The Precision Industries Education, Design and Manufacturing Technology Center was among the primary initiatives of the $15 million Campaign for Excellence.

January 24, 2003

The “Meadville Access Center” moved from the downtown mall to Bessemer Street and became known as Edinboro University in Meadville. Course offerings were expanded.

Spring 2004

Under the auspices of the Meadville Area Industrial Commission, renovations began at 789 Bessemer Street.

December 21, 2004

Grand opening of Edinboro University in Meadville.

